

CONFESSION FOR SEPTEMBER '19

The heavens are opened over me. I enjoy access to God's limitless supply, I am empowered by the ever-abiding presence of the Holy Spirit, I gain unrestricted access to God's truth. Treasures of darkness are mine and hidden riches of secret places gravitate to me because I walk in His light. I enjoy divine approval and heaven's validation, therefore, I can neither be refused nor rejected. My solutions are globally relevant and preferred. I am a difference maker enjoying strategic positioning and visibility. I am the face of favour, a grace carrier, and dispenser of God's goodness. I am a consistent tither, a relentless giver; I am secured and insured and every step I take takes me higher. I am blessed and I live in the reality of covenant possibilities. (Matt 3:16, Eze1:1, Rev4:1)

God's window of favour opens over Nigeria. We move to a season of supernatural abundance. Our systems are working, there is a mental and cultural shift, our values are gaining proper alignment and our nation becomes a model. Our leaders gain perspective and strive towards national development. There is peace within our borders and we are able to build and prosper. Nigeria is irreversibly blessed. (2Kings7, Isaiah 61:4, Plsm 46:9, 2Cor4:2)

At HarvestHouse, we enjoy unlimited supply, unhindered access, divine empowerment, God's partnership and approval in the pursuit of our God-given vision. We cover more ground, achieve greater impact and generate better result at a faster pace. Greater things are happening in us, for us and through us in quick succession. We are relentless soul winners, we take territories, dominate sectors, transform industries, rebuild cities, influence nations and possess continents for our God. We are blessed!!! In Jesus name. Amen (Phil 4:19, Isaiah 45:1, Mark 16:20, Acts 11:21)
